

Geography Quiz

1. What is the diameter of the Earth? a. 2,200 km b. 6,000 km c. 6,371 km d. 12,742 km	2. Which element is not found in the mantle? a. Sodium b. Silica c. Iron d. Magnesium
3. 250 million years ago, all the land masses on Earth were joined together in a super landmass called: a. Gondwana b. Pangaea c. Ultimata d. Laurasia	4. What is the study of the past, present and projected distribution of bushfires called? a. Biogeography b. Pyrogeography c. Ignitogeography d. Combustogeography
5. Large areas of farmlands were covered in ash following the eruption of the Sangay volcano in which South American country that straddles the equator? a. Peru b. Mexico c. Argentina d. Ecuador	6. Which country last week announced that they will be carbon neutral in 2060? a. USA b. Russia c. United Kingdom d. China
7. Which 94 year old British naturalist created a new record for the fastest time to reach one million followers on Instagram (in 4 hours 44 mins)? a. Sir David Attenborough b. David Suzuki c. Charles Darwin d. Alfred Wegener	8. The summer ice in which ocean has shrunk to its second lowest on record? a. Pacific Ocean b. Arctic Ocean c. Indian Ocean d. Atlantic Ocean
9. Businesses in which near neighbour of Australia are gradually moving to use the indigenous name for their country, "Aotearoa"? a. Papua New Guinea b. Indonesia c. Timor Leste d. New Zealand	10. The Australian Bureau of Meteorology (BOM) have announced that, for the first time in a decade, what weather pattern will bring more moisture to Australia that may lead to floods and ferocious cyclones this summer? a. La Niña b. El Bambino c. El Niño d. La Bambina

